LEGION OF MARY…

Sacred Heart Enthronement… The first invocation the Legionary makes in the opening prayers is: "Most Sacred Heart of Jesus have mercy on us". The Enthronement of the Sacred Heart is one of the oldest and most treasured apostolates of the Legion and one that Frank Duff himself personally engaged in. The months of June/July would be a good time to reflect on, and renew our devotion to the Sacred Heart. Call Linda 1-(925) 548-7170 cell- to scedule the Enthronement…see our SJA church website for further information.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Happy Sunday and Happy Father's Day!

We are grateful to God for all the many blessings bestowed on us through the fathers of this parish. I am always edified seeing the many fathers of our parish bringing their families to Mass, keeping them rooted in the faith, and leading their families in joy. You are all a great gift to me and the parish community, may God continue to richly bless you and may you always seek to live from the heart of our heavenly Father!

As many of you saw in last week's bulletin and in announcements from the Diocese of Phoenix, Bishop Olmsted is lifting the dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass beginning July 1st. This means that the regular obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of obligation returns to normal. The commandment to keep holy the Sabbath comes directly from God. Sometimes it's good to remind ourselves that when God gives us laws it's for our own good. God is not a narcissist who needs attention, but gives us this command because it's good for us to worship the one true God. The Catholic Church, in her way, concretizes this commandment by offering us the first of the five Precepts of the Church. The Catechism, p. 2041, states, "The obligatory character of these positive laws decreed by the pastoral authorities is meant to guarantee to the faithful the indispensable minimum in the spirit of prayer and moral effort, in the growth in love of God and neighbor." The Church uses the word "minimum" not to tell us how to scrape by, but to remind us that if we are not even doing these things, we won't be able to grow in love of God and neighbor as He intends.

I would like to invite you to please pray for those who have not yet been back to Mass. If you know these people, please reach out and invite them back to the Sacraments. This has been a difficult year in many ways and gathering around the Eucharist will give us the true sustenance to persevere through these difficulties and whatever may come.

As always, know of my prayers and have a great week!

In Christ,

Fr. Connealy

WELCOME VISITORS

We are happy to have you join us today and every Sunday. You enrich our Masses by your presence and your participation. We hope that you find our liturgies here to be an inspiring celebration of our faith.
Please come back again…and often.

¡

DE NUESTRO PASTOR

¡Feliz domingo y feliz día del padre!

Estamos muy agradecidos a Dios por todas las bendiciones concedidas a nosotros a través de los padres de esta parroquia. Siempre me edifica ver a los muchos padres de nuestra parroquia traer a sus familias a la Misa, mantenerlos arraigados en la fe y guiar a sus familias con alegría. ¡Todos ustedes son un gran regalo para mí y para la comunidad parroquial, que Dios continúe bendiciéndolos ricamente y que siempre busquen vivir desde el corazón de nuestro Padre celestial!

Como muchos de ustedes vieron en el boletín de la semana pasada y en los anuncios de la Diócesis de Phoenix, el obispo Olmsted está levantando la dispensa de la obligación de asistir a la misa dominical a partir del 1 de julio. Esto significa que la obligación regular de asistir a misa los domingos y los días santos de obligación vuelve a la normalidad. El mandamiento de santificar el día de reposo viene directamente de Dios. A veces es bueno recordarnos a nosotros mismos que cuando Dios nos da leyes, es por nuestro propio bien. Dios no es un narcisista que necesite atención, pero nos da este mandato porque es bueno para nosotros adorar al único Dios verdadero. La Iglesia Católica, a su manera, concreta este mandamiento ofreciéndonos el primero de los cinco Preceptos de la Iglesia. El Catecismo, pág. 2041, declara*, "El carácter obligatoriode estas leyes positivas promulgadas por la autoridad eclesiástica tiene por fin garantizar alos fieles el mínimo indispensable en el espíritu de oración y en el esfuerzo moral, en el crecimientodel amor de Dios y del prójimo."* La Iglesia usa la palabra "mínimo" no para decirnos cómo raspar, pero para recordarnos que si no estamos haciendo estas cosas, no podremos crecer en amor a Dios y al prójimo como lo pretende.

Me gustaría invitarlo a orar por aquellos que aún no han regresado a la Misa. Si conoce a estas personas, por favor comuníquese e invítelos a volver a los sacramentos. Este ha sido un año difícil en muchos aspectos y reunirse alrededor de la Eucaristía nos dará el verdadero sustento a perseverar a través de estas dificultades y lo que venga.

Como siempre, ¡conozca mis oraciones y tenga una gran semana!

En Cristo,

P. Connealy

ADORACIÓN EUCARÍSTICA ...

¿POR QUÉ DEBO SER ADORADOR?

¡Hay muchas razones! Lo más impovrtante es visitar y pasar tiempo con Nuestro Señor Jesucristo que es siempre. Presente en la Sagrada Eucaristía (también llamado Santísimo Sacramento). Como cualquier relación, lo que ponemos en es lo que vamos a volver y nuestro Señor no está superado en la generosidad! Como un adorador comprometido también tiene la increíble responsabilidad de mantener al Señor no sólo compañía sino también seguro en la Capilla de la Adoración. Los feligreses y otros generalmente se comprometen a una hora (o más) por semana. Venir a la adoración es una manera perfecta de acercarse cada vez más a Jesús e intensificar nuestra vida espiritual. ¡Que Cristo sea siempre Rey de nuestros corazones!

GOSPEL MEDITATIONS

JUNE 20, 2021

As we look at our lives and world events, do we ever find ourselves wondering if God is sleeping? After all, maybe God's patient, unconditional love has run its course and He is finally fed up with humanity's reluctance to accept the truth about who we are. God really can't be that patient! All throughout human history, many have prayed to God for intervention or for particular needs. Because their prayers were not answered in the way they wanted or anticipated, they felt that God may have abandoned them. Were they right? It seems that we are continuing, at a rapid rate, down a path of destruction. Do you not care, God, that we may be perishing? When the boats of our lives are rocking and the seas tumultuous, we want to know that we have God's attention. Even more so, we want God's intervention.

Maybe the storms and the waves are necessary. If we listen, they can teach us valuable lessons. Without them, we would never learn that we have the strength to endure, understand the uselessness of fear and worry, or develop the ability to really trust. If God immediately rushed in and simply calmed things down before they got difficult, what good would that really be? We would miss opportunities to learn how to drink more deeply of life, treasure its complexity, irony, and beauty and fully engage ourselves in surrendering to the love of our Creator. It is easy to walk on the surface of life without immersing ourselves in its messiness. Life has to burn its way through us in order to bring us to a place of secure trust. It's unfortunate that some prefer a shallower journey.

That's the balancing act that comes with faith. It is not God's job to prevent us from encountering the torrential rains and winds of life. Many believe that if faith is done the right way, that God will provide for smooth sailing. That's not how it works. God permits us to ride out the difficult stuff knowing that the storm will eventually be calmed. Do we not have faith that God will do this? True faith trusts in the steadfastness of God's love when the seas are calm and when they are choppy. God's unconditional loving presence shines through all of it and endures forever. Knowing this allows us to put our boats out into unchartered waters without hesitation. Knowing that we prefer the comfort and safety of what we know to be still waters, how do we feel when Jesus says, "Let us cross to the other side"

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

20 DE JUNIO DE 2021

Cuantas veces, en medio de las tormentas de la vida, nos hemos preguntado: ¿Dónde está Dios? ¿Acaso está dormido? ¿Por qué no acude a nuestro auxilio? Sin embargo, Dios está ahí entre nosotros, en medio de la tormenta, en medio de la pandemia. ¿Dónde estás Jesús que no te veo, que no te siento? Le preguntamos, muchas veces desesperados y ya sin aliento. ¡Escúchanos Señor, no nos abandones! Para comprender cómo actúa Dios, debemos meditar y reflexionar en su Palabra. Escuchemos lo que narra el Evangelio de hoy.

"Al atardecer de aquel mismo día, Jesús dijo a sus discípulos: 'Crucemos a la otra orilla del lago'. Despidieron a la gente y lo llevaron en la barca en que estaba… de pronto, se levantó un gran temporal y las olas se estrellaban contra la barca, que se iba llenando de agua. Mientras tanto Jesús dormía en la popa sobre un cojín. Lo despertaron diciendo: Maestro, ¿no te importa que nos hundamos? Él entonces se despertó. Se encaró con el viento y dijo al mar: 'Cállate, cálmate'. El viento se apaciguo y siguió una gran calma. Después dijo: '¿Por qué son tan miedosos? ¿Todavía no tienen fe?'" (Marcos 4:35-40). El miedo paraliza, el miedo hunde y destruye muchos planes y buenas acciones. En el caso de los discípulos, el miedo pudo haberse superado con confianza en la presencia de Jesús, aunque estuviera durmiendo. Ahora bien, en los casos actuales cabe la pregunta. ¿Cómo supero las dificultades? ¿Vence el miedo o la confianza y fe en Dios? La respuesta debe salir del fondo del corazón y es muy persona.
