

LEILA MILLER:

Author of Raising Chaste Catholic Men: Practical Advice, Mom to Mom and her most recent project Primal Loss: The Now-Adult children of Divorce Speak. Leila is a popular Catholic blogger, a contributor to Catholic Answers Magazine Online, and has been featured on EWTN and the Patrick Madrid Show. Leila and her husband Dean have eight children and a rapidly expanding number of grandchildren. She and her family are proud parishioners at St. Joan of Arc.

LEILA MILLER'S HUNGRY SOULS PRESENTATION

Divorce – The Air We Breathe

Bishop Olmsted has said that "some suffering is not allowed to be called suffering." Divorce has become so common that we sometimes don't notice the effect it is having, not only on our wider culture, but on our own Catholic community. Divorce is an injustice not only to the abandoned spouse, but to the ones who don't have a voice at all: the children. Let's look at the divorce epidemic with fresh eyes, and let's find a way to name the suffering of divorce so that it can be brought to the Cross of Christ for redemption.