

“Live @ The Ramada”

Frequently Asked Questions:

What is “Live @ The Ramada?”

“Live @ The Ramada” is a live music event in an outside venue called “The Ramada,” on the campus of St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church. Musical artists from throughout the valley are invited to perform. “The Ramada” is a unique place for this unique event, where people can come and mingle and enjoy the fine art of live music.

Who plays at The Ramada?

The evening begins with an amateur, usually someone who’s talented, but not too familiar with playing in front of an audience. After that, there are typically two more acts that are professional in nature and no stranger to performing. The three performers typically vary in musical genres.

How much does it cost?

These events are free!

Is this an “open mic night?”

It is not an open mic night. All of the acts are pre-approved by the promoters.

What time does the music start?

Gates open at 7:30 pm. Music starts around 8:00 pm.

Is there an age restriction?

Yes. No one under 21 is allowed.

Can I bring in food and drinks?

Yes. You may bring in any food or drink you want. Patrons are asked to be accountable for cleaning up after themselves-and to be responsible in the amount of alcohol they bring and consume. Security is on hand to monitor. People seem to love this common-sense idea.
