FR. CRUZ

PADRE CRUZ.

Greetings and blessings!

This year is very important for our parish because it commemorates 45 years of our establishment as a parish and 25 years in our current church building. Lots of history of love, labor, sacrifice and planning the foundation of our parish experienced so many faithful before us to make Saint Joan of Arc Parish what it is today. With all thanksgiving to God for this wonderful place where we encounter the living God through our sacred liturgy and celebration of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, perpetual adoration, caring for the poor, administering to the sick, preparing for the sacraments by educating our children to be disciples of Jesus Christ, to forming small groups of fraternity and burying our beloved dead. So much fruitfulness of life is experienced here and I thank God for placing me here with such a wonderful flock.

May Jesus Christ be praised and Saint Joan of Arc intercede for us!

Father Cruz

Saludos y bendiciones!

Este año es muy importante para nuestra parroquia porque conmemora 45 años de nuestro establecimiento como parroquia y 25 años en nuestro edificio actual de la iglesia. Mucha historia de amor, trabajo, sacrificio y planificación, la fundación de nuestra parroquia experimentó a tantos fieles antes que nosotros para hacer de la Parroquia de Santa Juana de Arco lo que es hoy. Con toda acción de gracias a Dios por este maravilloso lugar donde encontramos al Dios vivo a través de nuestra sagrada liturgia y celebración del Santo Sacrificio de la Misa, adoración perpetua, cuidado de los pobres, administración de los enfermos, preparación para los sacramentos educando a nuestros hijos. ser discípulos de Jesucristo, formar pequeños grupos de fraternidad y enterrar a nuestros amados muertos. Aquí se experimenta tanta fecundidad de vida y doy gracias a Dios por colocarme aquí con un rebaño tan maravilloso.

¡Alabado sea Jesucristo y Santa Juana de Arco interceda por nosotros!

Padre Cruz

GOSPEL MEDITATION -
ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Recently I watched a bunch of YouTube videos on how to optimize willpower in the face of weakness. The message was: do not accept your weakness. Crush it. Dominate it. In one video, however, at the end of a rant by a willpower coach, the muscular stoic admitted, "You'll never actually get what you want, no matter how hard you try." Amazingly, he admitted that willpower alone is not sufficient for us weak-willed humans.

What does God want us to do with our weaknesses, if crushing them with willpower won't work? For example, what should I do with my tendency to arrogance and self-isolation? Or my procrastination? Or my intellectual and physical limitations? Or my selfishness?

The counter-intuitive answer is clear in this week's words from St Paul, "I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses in order that the power of Christ may dwell in me (2 Cor. 12:9)." Boast of our weaknesses? Paul isn't promoting weak-mindedness or laziness. Rather, he perceives that Jesus loves us not despite our weaknesses but because of them. Boasting of our weakness means claiming human will is not all we have. It means turning to God whenever we feel weak, which—let's face it—is almost all the time. When we do, we learn to love our weaknesses, because it's there that we meet the strength of Christ. This week, I challenge us to find ways to boast not in willpower but in weakness.

ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA
ESCRITURA

14° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Todos, en algún momento de nuestra vida, somos testarudos y obstinados, nos encaprichamos en nuestras ideas y nada ni nadie nos hace cambiar de opinión. Nos volvemos irrazonables y no escuchamos consejo alguno. Creemos que el mundo está a nuestros pies y que lo podemos controlar todo. Sin embargo, no es así. Lo podemos ver en la primera lectura de hoy. El pueblo israelita era rebelde e infiel a sus creencias. Por eso Dios dijo al profeta lo siguiente: "Te envío donde esa raza de cabezas duras y de corazones obstinados para que les digas: ¡Esta es la palabra de Yavé...!" (Ezequiel 2:4). ¿Me he rebelado contra Dios? ¿Soy obstinado en mis ideas? El mundo, la sociedad y todos nosotros necesitamos la misericordia de Dios para ser mejores, para que el corazón obstinado y rebelde se abra a la gracia de Dios tan necesaria en nuestra vida.

El poder de Dios se manifiesta en nuestra debilidad. Eso es precisamente lo que el Evangelio de hoy nos manifiesta. Aparentemente, los que escuchaban a Jesús en la sinagoga no lo creían capaz de ser sabio y mucho menos ser el Hijo de Dios. Por eso se preguntaban atónitos: "¿De dónde le viene todo esto? ¿Y qué pensar de la sabiduría que ha recibido, con esos milagros que salen de sus manos?" (Marcos 5:2). Cómo era posible que un perfecto desconocido hablara con sabiduría e hiciera milagros como Dios. Además, era hijo de María y de un carpintero insignificante. ¿Cuál es la enseñanza de Jesús para nosotros hoy? No olvidemos, con su gracia nos basta.

JULY 10: PARTICIPATING AT MASS
JULY 17: CHARITY AT MASS
JULY 24: GOD'S GIFT AT MASS

Does it ever feel as if your humanity gets in the way of you knowing and experiencing God? Are you unsure what you are supposed to be doing at Mass?

The Laity are called to grow constantly in "holiness by conscious, active, and fruitful participation in the mystery of the Eucharist." These inspiring words might also seem daunting if we don't have a clear idea of how to engage them. Parents with little ones can especially be overcome with guilt by feeling like they miss the Sacrifice of the Mass by always attending to the needs of their children. What does it mean to participate, as a laymen, in the Mass as the Church calls us to?
