A LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Happy Sunday!

What a beautiful sign of love it is when a parish community cares for the beauty, safety and well-being of its church and grounds. Your generosity, time, skill, and sacrifice help make this parish a place where people can pray, celebrate, and encounter the Lord. THANK YOU for the 333 families that have helped us reach $78,848.13 towards our Parish Beautification projects since June 1st!

Our generosity and encounter here at our parish allows Isaiah to speak of God preparing a feast “for all peoples.” This is a promise of salvation, joy, and the day when the “Lord God will wipe away the tears of every face.” In the Gospel, Jesus describes the kingdom as a wedding banquet to which the king invites his guests. The invitation is generous and wide. The servants are sent into the streets to gather everyone they can find. That is the mission of our parish. To help people hear and accept the Lord’s invitation by encountering our Lord in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. A beautiful church can be a fitting welcome and a sign of reverence for God. But its beauty reaches its purpose when it draws people toward prayer, the Eucharist, reverence and a deeper life with Christ and when those who enter find a community of believers ready to receive them.

So let our care for the parish extend beyond its walls. May the same generosity that cares for our grounds also make room for the newcomer, accompany the grieving, serve the poor, and invite those who have drifted away. The wedding feast is not a private gathering for a few, but the king sends his servants out so the hall may be filled.

Thank you for helping make this parish beautiful. May this beauty extend beyond what the eye can see.

Always in Christ,

Father Cruz

¡Feliz domingo!

Qué hermoso gesto de amor es que una comunidad parroquial se preocupe por la belleza, la seguridad y el bienestar de su iglesia y sus terrenos. Su generosidad, su tiempo, sus habilidades y su sacrificio contribuyen a que esta parroquia sea un lugar donde las personas puedan orar, celebrar y encontrarse con el Señor.

¡GRACIAS a las 333 familias que nos han ayudado a recaudar $78,848.13 para nuestros proyectos de embellecimiento de la parroquia desde el 1 de junio!

Nuestra generosidad y nuestro encuentro aquí, en nuestra parroquia, permiten que Isaías hable de que Dios prepara un banquete “para todos los pueblos.” Esta es una promesa de salvación, de alegría y del día en que “el Señor Dios enjugará las lágrimas de todos los rostros.” En el Evangelio, Jesús describe el reino como un banquete de bodas al que el rey invita a sus huéspedes. La invitación es generosa y amplia. Los siervos son enviados a las calles para reunir a todos los que puedan encontrar. Esa es la misión de nuestra parroquia: ayudar a las personas a escuchar y aceptar.

Que nuestro cuidado por la parroquia se extienda más allá de sus muros. Que la misma generosidad con la que cuidamos nuestros terrenos también dé cabida al recién llegado, acompañe a quienes están de luto, sirva a los pobres e invite a quienes se han alejado. El banquete de bodas no es una reunión privada para unos pocos, sino que el rey envía a sus siervos para que se llene el salón.

Gracias por ayudar a embellecer esta parroquia. Que esta belleza se extienda más allá de lo que el ojo puede ver.

Siempre en Cristo,

Padre Cruz

Blessing for Our Common Home

God, bless and protect this beautiful earth You have created, the place we call home.

Grow Your compassion in us, as we share our lives in this world, together.

Amen.

Respond with Love

Do you remember a time when you spent much time or money on a surprise or gift for someone else and they failed to appreciate it? We do open ourselves up to disappointment if our expectations do not match the response. Perhaps we reached down deep to share a part of ourselves only to encounter apathy and insensitivity. That can hurt even if the person ignoring our gesture meant no ill will toward us.

What must God feel like when we fail to respond to what He has done for us. We probably do not purposefully slight God, but perhaps we are so busy and mindless that it becomes impossible to be responsive and mindful. We can miss the gift of God which is right before our eyes.

It is very difficult to be a good steward if we do not intentionally choose to be mindful. We miss the important stuff in life, and we neglect those placed in our path as gifts to enrich our lives. If we are to live as Jesus asks, we must work on focusing our eyes of faith on the things that matter and the gifts we have been given. If we are made in the image of God, I suppose we can guess how God might feel when His gifts are not acknowledged, or His love not returned. If I reflect on the One who loves me more than anyone, how can I choose to not offer my love in return?

REFLECTIONS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The King of Rejected Meals

“She was the Queen of Rejected Meals.”

That’s what I want it to say on my tombstone. Etched in marble, deeply, so the wind and rain of a thousand years can never erase it.

Humor, you see, masks my despair. I’m sure many of you know the feeling of sweating over a hot stove for an hour to create a dish that a small, picky eater will push away, lips curled with disgust.

We’ve all made a feast no one wanted to come to.

It strikes me that “King of Rejected Meals” is an epithet which could likewise be scrawled on the empty tomb. Don’t mistake me — I’m not comparing myself to Christ! (And I’m definitely not comparing my sub-par beef-and-zucchini casserole to the Eucharist, the food of life.)

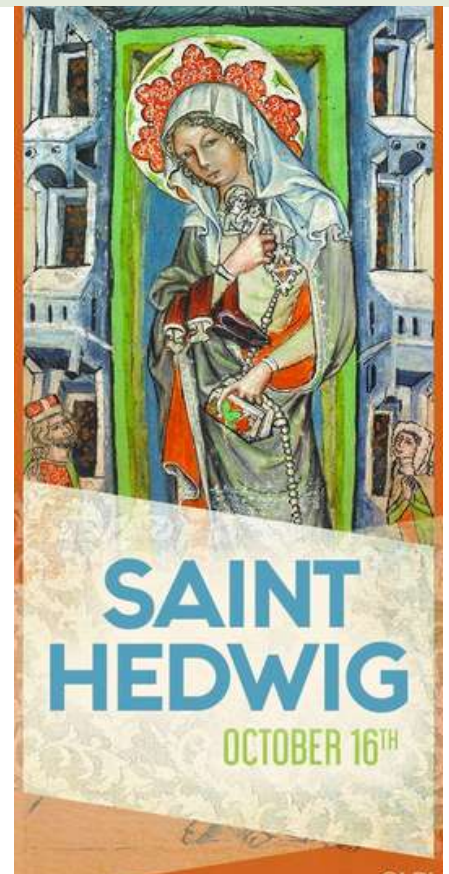

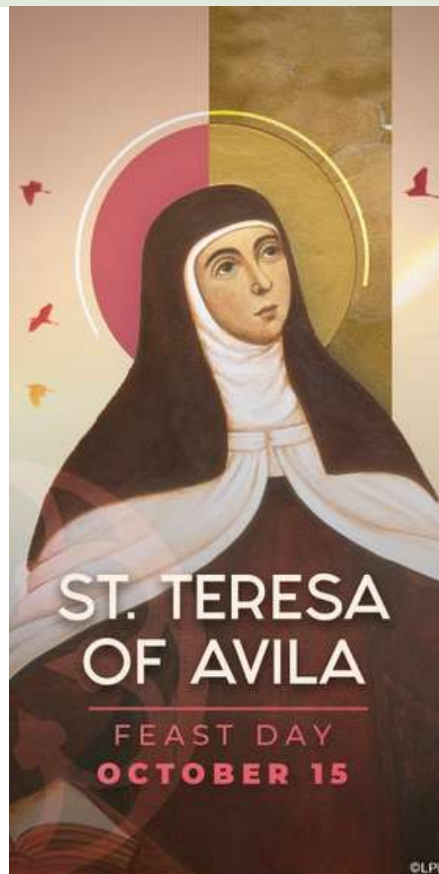

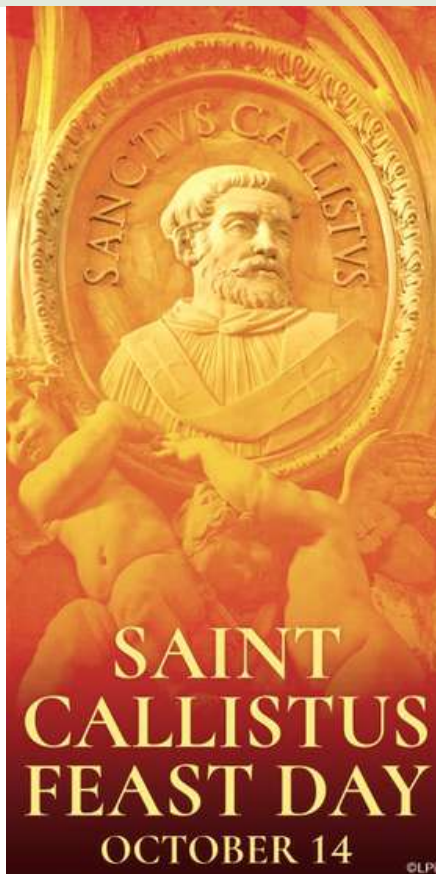

I’m just saying that a lot of evenings, when I’m clearing plates from the table, I wonder why I even bother. I wonder why I don’t just give in and let the kids eat potato chips and KitKats for every meal like they want.

Why don’t I? Well, mom guilt, for starters. But it’s more than that, really. It’s the certainty I have, underneath the resentment, that my efforts aren’t in vain, despite all evidence to the contrary.

Hope springs eternal, you see. How can we Christians help but be optimistic? We have been welcomed to a feast laid for others. We find our salvation in the ultimate rejected meal, in recognizing what true nourishment looks and feels and tastes like, even — especially! — when the rest of the world does not.

Maybe one day my kids will eat grilled chicken willingly. Who knows? Miracles happen every day.
