GOSPEL MEDITATION

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

November 15, 2026
Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
Matthew 25:14-30

A friend once took his young adult son to the casino for his birthday. He handed him $100 and said, "Let's have a great time." The son, a graduate student with limited money, quietly pocketed the money and refused to play. "I don't want to lose it," he said. But he missed the point: the money was not really his to pocket; it was his father's invitation to share an experience together.

God sees our gifts a bit like this. In Jesus' parable, a servant buries his master's talent and explains: "Master, I knew you were a demanding person...so out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground" (Matthew 25:24-25). The master condemns him not for failure but for refusing to risk. The servant's fear distorts his image of the master and leads to a small, loveless response. No love, no risk. No risk, no relationship. How easily we fall into this trap! We treat God's gifts as fragile possessions rather than invitations. We play it safe, avoid risk, and tell ourselves we are wise and God is cruel. But Jesus praises those who trust the Master's goodness enough to act boldly. They are not reckless but confident enough in their Master to risk their gifts for Him.

So, what is my interior story about God right now? Is it marked by generosity, adventure, and trust? Or by fear, caution, and suspicion? That hidden narrative shapes everything. Because love, by its nature, always takes risks with, and for, the beloved.

— Father John Muir

XXXIII Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
Mateo 25:14-30

Para poder ejercer una carrera o un trabajo, se deben tener las habilidades necesarias para realizarlo. De otra manera, se fracasa en los intentos. El Evangelio de hoy nos presenta otra parábola donde se ponen a prueba los talentos o dones de la persona."Un hombre estaba a punto de partir a tierras lejanas y reunió a sus servidores para confiarles todas sus pertenencias. Al primero le dio cinco talentos, a otro le dio dos y al tercero solamente uno, a cada cual según su capacidad" (Mateo 25:14-15). Saber administrar, en lo terreno y en lo espiritual, lo que Dios nos da es un arte que se debe aprender día a día. Lo que se nos da es para el servicio de los que nos rodean, no para nosotros mismos.

"A los ojos de Dios, nada se recibe en vano. Como Jesús sugiere en la parábola de los talentos, cuanto nos ha sido confiado no debe enterrarse, sino ponerse en circulación y multiplicarse en el horizonte del Reino de Dios. Dicho horizonte es más amplio que el horizonte privado y no se refiere a un mundo utópico: el Reino de Dios, al que Jesús ha consagrado su vida, está cerca, porque está en medio de nosotros y sacude las configuraciones injustas del poder, las estructuras de pecado que excavan abismos entre pobres y ricos, entre privilegiados y descartados, entre amigos y enemigos. Cada talento, cada oportunidad, cada bien depositado en nuestras manos tiene un destino universal, una exigencia intrínseca de no ser retenido, sino redistribuido, para que la vida de todos sea mejor" (Papa León XIV, 28-03-2026).

Everyday Stewardship

I remember watching a television show about a high school that dug up a time capsule that students had buried twenty-five years earlier. They had buried it with the purpose of showing others many years later the trends of the day and how student life was at that time. It was a fun exercise and everyone--the current students as well as those now grown--laughed at the clothing styles, corny photos, and lack of technology from years ago.

I wonder how the former students felt about how they had grown in those twenty-five years. How many of them realized their high school dreams? Did they find their purpose in this world and feel fulfilled in life? Did they use the talents and gifts God gave them to really make a difference in the world?

We have all been given talents and gifts by God to be cultivated and offered back to him and those around us for his glory. As time has passed, hopefully we have taken seriously our stewardship of these gifts. But sometimes out of fear, misunderstanding, or even apathy, we have taken one or more of our gifts and buried them, hiding them away from others and stifling all growth. This is no way to honor God and certainly not a path to fulfillment in life. If we have anything buried in our backyard we might do well to dig it back up, clean it up, and begin building upon it. Like a time capsule, those things will not be buried forever. One day the giver of that gift will ask what you have done with it. When that day comes, I pray you don't need to find a shovel.

Praying for Your Support

Since attending our Knights of Columbus's Pro-Life dinner this year, St Joan of Arc Preschool & Kindergarten has felt a calling to help those moms and children who are staying at Casa St Gianna (CSG), which is a Catholic home for pregnant women and children. CSG can provide 90- day housing for three women and their children at a time and is in North Phoenix at 35th Ave and Bell. It is run by Life Choices Women's Clinic. Our school would like to offer year-long service to them by collecting various items in need and transporting them to their facility. Along with providing a place to stay, CSG also provides resources to assist the moms to become financially independent and able to provide for themselves and their children. Please review their present Wish List and pray for providing an item on that list. All donations can be dropped off at the SJA school office Monday-Thursday from 8-3:30 or Friday from 8-1:30. Call our office at 602-867-9179 if you have any questions. Thank you for your generous support.

REFLECTIONS

Outside the Wedding Feast

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Professional Catholics

They call us "professional Catholics."

You know many of these folks. Maybe you are one (I am). Maybe it's part of your actual job to work for the Church. "Manna from Heaven," I once called it — the privilege of seeing your bills paid by money earned talking about God.

I was having dinner with a friend recently who works in a local parish. She shared with me that some of her colleagues don't seem to have much of a devotional life outside of their jobs. Some don't even attend regular Mass, though their lives revolve around the Church.

"That's terrible," I said, not wanting to think of the holy hours I haven't had time for, the Rosaries I haven't finished, and the stack of spiritual books next to my desk, spines uncracked.

You don't have to earn a paycheck to be a professional Catholic. A professional Catholic can be anyone who spends a good deal of time simply identifying as a disciple, without embracing what that actually means.

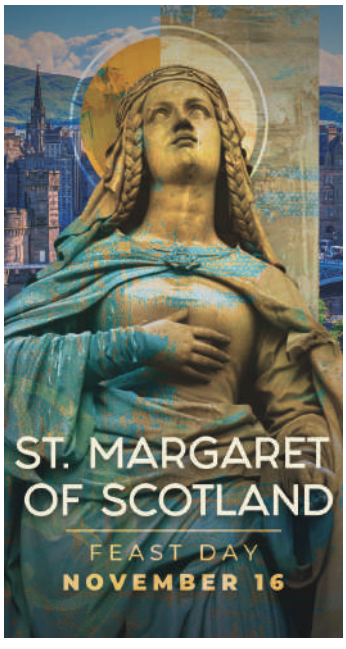

See, I was wrong to call it "manna from Heaven." Manna merely sustains life, and we shouldn't be satisfied with that. The reward of a disciple should be more.

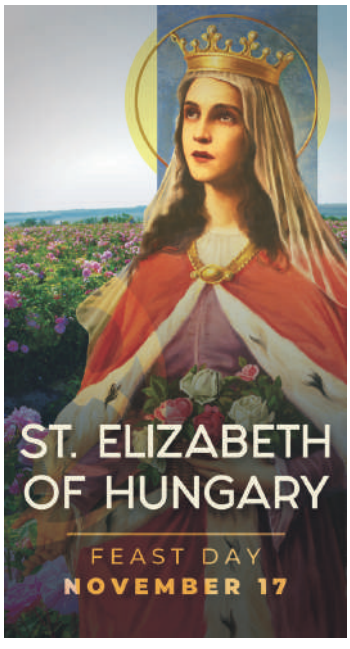

The opportunity to spread the Gospel is a fortune, lavishly endowed to the care of a servant by a master who is long delayed. He doesn't care about return on investment. He'll be just as pleased with a twofold increase as a five-fold one. It's not about profits. It's about engagement.

How terrible will it be, when I stand before God, if all I can tell Him is this: "I did my job. I was a professional."

I want to tell Him I did more. I pray I can tell Him I did more.

SAINTS OF THE WEEK

NOTICIAS

¿Por qué casarse en una iglesia?

Pregunta:
¿Por qué se exige a los católicos que contraigan matrimonio en una iglesia, y no al aire libre o en otro lugar?

Respuesta:
Dado que el sacramento del matrimonio es una alianza sagrada entre los esposos, su celebración es mucho más que un simple acontecimiento social o familiar. Por ello, la norma de celebrar el sacramento en una iglesia ayuda a reforzar el sentido profundo del matrimonio cristiano. Para mayor claridad, cabe añadir que la tradición de la Iglesia incluye habitualmente la celebración de la Misa cuando los contrayentes son ambos católicos; por tanto, la iglesia o la capilla constituyen el marco ideal. No obstante, por motivos especiales —que varían según la diócesis—, el obispo local puede autorizar que el matrimonio se celebre en otro lugar adecuado.
